Miles farm- buried near brother James Doty on hillside.

Taken from Charleston Herald clipping- date not on it.

An interview by reporter with Levi Doty, in I885.

Levi Doty was born Jan. 26, I805 and is now eighty years of age. He says his father died when he was young. My Uncle James Parker who lived on the Wabash Riber, came to our house and got me to go with him to Illinois. We rode through on horses, and I came to this neighborhood in I823, my neighbors were redmen. I have hunted with the Indians many a day. I was here about three years when my mother and family came. My step-father John Bates married my mother and wanted to move away out in the woods where game was plenty. The Battle of Ambraw was fought ten or fifteen years before I came here (I923). There were plenty of signs of battle.

We were bothered with wolves from the timber and prairie which killed our pigs and lambs. I voted for Andrew Jackson in I824. I wasn't of age. The Parkers were terrible Democrats and the voting place was in Clark County. There were I00 vots cast.

One evening twelve Kickapoo Indians came and wanted to stay all night. I took their guns and stacked them by the fireplace. The Indians slept on the floor. My wife didn't sleep, but the Indians didn't bother us.

My first wife died and I married Jan. II, I8( )4 Malinda White. She died and I married my present wife Liles Citel, Oct. 30, I866.

The Parkers went to Texas and got killed by the Indians. Ben tried to be friendly with them. My brother James Doty is spry yet. He came here with my Mother and the family two or three years after I came.

Levi Doty was buried in Doty cemetery south west Charleston, go west from Bails church far as can go, south one fourth mile, west one fourth & follow road

(John Doty & Anna Mann) natives of Maryland, who abt the year I8I8 moved to Crawford Co. Ills., where the fathers death occured.
Hn I826 Levi with his widowed mother removed to Coles County and settled south of Charleston. He assisted his mother to carry on the farm, and also worked by the month for neighbors. There were no school advantages, consequently he did not get a chance to learn reading and writing till after his marriage, when his wife became his teacher. In a sketch written by the report r of the Charleston Herald for one of the Old Settlers Reunions he had the following to say. He says, " My Uncle James Parker who lived on the Wabash came back to Ohio, and got me to go with him to Ills., my father died we went through on horse back to Ills., and reached the Parker neighborhood in I823, the red men werer all around in the woods.
I use to hunt with them many times, they were good hunters, at first I was afraid of them, but finally got use to them and liked to hunt with them. After I had been here about 3 yrs my mother and family came out here. My Step-father Bates wanted to move away out in the back woods where game was plenty. They came out and brought brothers and sisters and settled near the present Monroe School house in Lafayette Twp. The Indians were very close. Our nearest neighbor was Bob Miller. We heard of a battle being fought on the Embarras River on a bluff which must of occured abt I0 or I5 yrs before we came here.(which was) pro abt. I824 or 5 when the family moved here). There were plenty of signs of battle when I came. I could always tell an Indians rifle from a white mans as the Indians made a dull report, caused by the gun not being cleaned out. We use to burn off the prairies to make the grass come up early in the spring. The prairie grass grew about 8 ft high. The wolves use to bother us and we made wolfe traps to catch them. In I824 we had an election, voted where Charleston is, the Parkers had just moved in and they were terrible democrats. I voted for Andrew Jackson before I was of age. Charleston was a precinct of Clark County. Soon after I was married I2 Kickappo Indians came one night to the house and wanted to stay all night, to show their friendship they handed their guns to me, I stacked them at the head of the bed. They laid down around the fire place. I slept soundly all night" Before Mr Doty died he divided his property among his children. He was Commissioner of Roads and School Director and for nearly half a centuary was a member of the Baptist Church. In I875 he was obliged to discontinue his work on account of rheumatism, and after I884 he confined to his bed. The Bates and Doty's settled in sections 22-I2-'8 abt I825-6 and were soon followed by the Samuel Henry and John Robinson on the Kickapoo Creek. It has been claimed that Levi Doty came to what is now Coles County in the year I822-23 and lived with the Indians awhile and hunted then returned to Crawford County.

The Doty family claim descent from Edward Doty one of the Puritan Emigrants who came from England on the Mayflower in I620.

Levi Doty was m in I827 to Miss Phipps and is considered the first man m in Coles County

Doty Family

Ref:
Signers of the Mayflower Compact by Haxton: Page 32

Edward Dotey, or Doughty, of the Mayflower, was an English youth, belonging to the same family as Sir Charles Montague Doughty, or Doty, of Therburton Hall, Suffolk, England formerly of Lincoln Co.

The family has an ancient and honorable record that dates back to the Norman Conquest.

Edward Doty, being a minor, came over in the employ of Stephen Hopkins, and was one of the forty-one signers of the compact signed on the Mayflower, Nov. 11, 1620. His will was dated ~~July~~ 5-20-1655 and he died 8-23-1655.

On 1-6-1634-5 he was married to his 2nd wife (first one died young) Fayth Clarke, daughter of Thurston Clark.
